NASCAR FAMILY FINDS "Faith in the Midst of Tragedy"
Featured Speaker - Cathy Hendrick

Cathy Hendrick will share with us today her story Faith in the Midst of Tragedy. On October 24, 2004, a plane that was on its way to the Martinsville Speedway crashed into Bull Mountain in Patrick County, Virginia. There were no survivors. In that moment, Cathy lost her husband, John Hendrick, who was the President of Hendrick Motorsports, her twin daughters Jennifer and Kimberly, and her nephew, Ricky, the son of Rick Hendrick the owner of NASCAR team, Hendrick Motorsports. You will be encouraged to hear how God continues to provide comfort and strength to the Hendrick Family.

Special Singing - Lisa Ann Hammond

Lisa Ann Hammond is a Christian recording artist and song writer. Lisa Ann suffers from Tourette's Syndrome, a neurological disorder, that causes her to have involuntary movements and vocalizations. When her singing begins, like a miracle, the Lord's comforting touch takes away her affliction. She travels and sings throughout the Eastern U.S., and recently recorded her 8th album.
