Sermon Notes

Intro... When life throws you a curve... there will be a temptation to grow bitter, or impatient. Sometimes we even give up and start chasing lesser things. But there is a better option for the Authentic Church and Christian... You can bloom where God chooses to plant you! You can see God's purposes even in the most difficult of times and places.

1. It is tempting to use life's ups and downs as an excuse to check out... to quit
 - a. Observing the church's response to Stephen's death is inspirational and convicting.
 - b. What is the latest setback or detour you have faced? How is your faith navigating it? With excitement, joy and hope... or despair... Why does God use the word "new" so often in relation to our faith, worship and future?
2. It is not "if," but when life will be throwing you the next detour.
 - a. These detours are tools God uses to focus you forward (Isaiah 43:18-19)
 - b. What are the things in life that most commonly detour you? How are you preparing to face the next one?
3. When life threw Philip a major detour, he decided to let the Gospel seeds scatter... and bloom wherever God located him...
 - a. Have you "granted" God the absolute right to place you where he most needs you to glorify Himself? If not, then can you really call Jesus Lord?
4. God can do amazing things in new contexts, methodologies, processes and places too.

Prayer: Father open my eyes to what (and where) you are at work and soften my heart that I may join you there...
